State of North Carolina

Surry County

On the 13th day of August 1832 personally appears in open court before William C. Martin, R H Parks and Thomas Williams, in the court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, non selling Bartholomew Marion, a resident of this (Surry) County in the State of North Carolina after seventy seven years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832, He was born in Albemarle county in Virginia and at four years old was brought by his parents to Granville County in North Carolina from thence in his youth he was removed to Bute County and thence when he was about eleven years old, he came with them to Surry. Where he has lived ever since with the exception of one year when he was in the state of Ohio.

The first tour of duty he performed was as a drafted soldier, from Surry County under Captain James Shepperd, Colonel Lock was marched from Surry to Savanna River where they lay near Gen'l Lincoln's Camp, The Battle of Bryan Creek took place while he was with the army but he was not in it, he being with Gen'l Rutherford. He was then discharged but not in writing. He was five months engaged as a soldier in this tour. The next tour of duty (page 4) he performed was a volunteer in the Horse under Captain Dyer, Colonel Armstrong's Regiment and was marched to Hillsboro where he was present at an attack upon a British picket, having engaged in this tour six weeks. I was discharged but without writing. ~ Another tour he served under the same Captain Dyer, a volunteer after the Battle of Guilford in pursuit of Bryant, a commander of the Tories went across the forks of the Yadkin by Salisbury and round by the Moravian towns. He was in this tour two months. He was at another time, a volunteer two weeks guarding the prisoners taken at Kings Mountain at the Moravian Town. Colonel Armstrong was there but whether in command or not he knows not. He served in all about 9 months, as near as he can recollect. He has no record of his age and never had a written discharge. He's pretty generally known in his present neighborhood to Joseph Williams and others.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.
